

California Accountable Communities for Health Initiative

California Health and Human Services Agency

2016 Innovation Conference

January 26, 2016

California Accountable Communities for Health Initiative

An Accountable Community for Health is a multi-payer, multi-sector alliance of major health care systems, providers, and health plans, along with public health, key community and social services organizations, schools, and other partners serving a particular geographic area.

An ACH is responsible for improving the health of the entire community, with particular attention to achieving greater health equity among its residents.

Shared vision and goals

Partnerships

Leadership

Backbone

Data analytics and sharing capacity

Wellness
Fund

Portfolio of interventions

Definitional Elements

Initiative OVERVIEW

Initiative

- Grants
- Research
- Technical Assistance
- Evaluation

Funding

- Up to six grantees
- $250,000 for first year, up to $300,000 years two & three

RFP

- Balance definitional elements with local flexibility
- High level of readiness and geographic diversity

Link

- Federal CMS Accountable Health Communities
- Other national efforts to accelerate learning about what works

California Accountable Communities for Health Initiative

For more information, please visit:

www.CommunityPartners.org/CACHI

Please direct inquiries to:

Barbara Masters, Project Manager

CACHImgr@CommunityPartners.org