

09/24/21

Francine Byrne

Provide adequate designated funding to the trial courts for the purpose of IST evaluations.

Identify funding and develop state level resources for the trial courts to assist in identification and outreach to qualified forensic evaluators who can conduct IST evaluations. Such resources can include the development of a statewide inventory of evaluators and costs per evaluation, the creation and implementation of a recruitment and outreach plan, and the compilation of currently implemented promising practices.