Are there tools available that would help health systems determine if they are compliant with the DxF and help identify gaps? The DxF/P&Ps do not mandate specific technology or data exchange methods which may lead to interpretation. Our organization participates in data exchange in many formats including participation with National Networks, regional HIO's, and other methods. Looking for tools that would help us answer questions to confirm our organization's current state compliance with the DxF/P&P's.	Ryan Sommers	ryan.sommers@commonspirit.org
What do QHIOs do? Why are they needed? Will they be another expense for providers needing to participate in DxF?	Lucy Johns MPH	ljohns@metacosmos.org is the DxF also for families to be able to access and view their information? Perhaps update pertinent information such as changes in address, contact information, etc.?	Victor Perez	vperez@reimagineoc.org
How will local public health depts benefit from this ? Can you share the demographic and other standards you are creating	Anandi Sujeer	anandi.sujeer@phd.sccgov.org
Hello - when will a signature block/signing mechanism be available for the DSA?	Nicole Salazar	nicole.salazar@ventura.org
What are the ramifications if counties choose not to sign the DSA?	Candace Pelham	candace.pelham@nevadacountyca.gov
Would be more helpful to have the slides which can be circulated to our leadership. None of them will take the time to watch a 1. hour webinar.	Ray Duncan	ray.duncan@cshs.org
What is the timeline for implementation of the Qualified Health Information Organization Program?	Angela Evatt	angela.evatt@changehealthcare.com
