Call to Order

Master Plan Director Victor Duron

Our Partnership

- We are grateful to this Stakeholder Committee for your commitment and offering your diverse experience, expertise, and perspectives to this effort.
- We will provide the resources and create the space for this Stakeholder Committee to take the lead in crafting a Master Plan.
- Together we will develop an aspirational vision, bold goals, and specific milestones to demonstrate our progress.

Your Leadership

- As members of this Stakeholder Committee, your leadership will be critical in several ways:
  - You will make sure that this plan considers the whole person, across all stages of life, across all our diverse communities.
  - You will make sure we identify and lift up all of the voices that need to be a part of this conversation, especially those voices that have been historically left out.
  - You will ensure that when this plan is completed, we, collectively share in accountability for ensuring that this plan is a success.

Introductions and Shared Values

Committee Member Introductions

- Introduce yourself and say if you work or belong to an organization or agency.
- You can also choose to say another way to identify yourself, like what is your connection to this work.
- Share something about yourself. It could be a fun fact, something you like to do or something that is important to you.

Community Agreements

What are community agreements?

- Commitments we make about how we will work together
- Helps make sure everyone is included and participates
- Helps everyone know what is expected at our meetings

Examples of community agreements

- No one knows everything, together we know a lot
- One person speaks at a time
- Be curious and ask questions
- Treat everyone with respect

What agreements are important to you?

- Think about a time you were in a group and felt like you belonged and got things done.
- What made you feel you could be yourself and fully participate
- Share an example about a way you want to work together

BREAK

15 Minutes

Report Out: Community Agreements

- Each group will share their 3-6 community agreements.

LUNCH BREAK

1 Hour

Vision for Success

Setting our vision for success

- What do we want the world to be like in the future?
- Our vision should focus on the big picture without detailing the steps to get there.
- It's about hopes and dreams for the future, imagining possibilities beyond what exists now.

What is your vision for the Master Plan?

- From your experience, what changes do you imagine for the developmental disabilities system in the future?
- After we implement a successful Master Plan, how is life different and better for people receiving services from the system?

BREAK

15 Minutes

Priorities Brainstorm

Priorities help us to....

- Achieve our Master Plan vision
- Show us what is most important to work on
- Can change as work together and learn more

Key questions to consider

1. What common themes or areas do you think stood out during the Master Plan vision discussions?
2. Based on your experience, are there specific areas you think our group should focus on in our meetings?

PUBLIC COMMENT

Oral public comments will be taken from people in the room and then online.

If you are in-person, please make sure you've completed a card indicating you'd like to speak.

People online will be asked to raise their hands and we will call on them in the order shown in Zoom.

Please limit your comments to no more than 2 minutes to ensure everyone who wants to has a chance to speak.

If you prefer to send comments in writing, email them to:
